REVIEWS - RECORDS - RHYTHM

We have had a lot of letters, (some of them rather impatient) from the Alumni and others wondering why there has been no accounts of Barium's football activities in The Messenger. Well, there was a reason. The fall month issues of The Messenger are so taken up with matters pertaining to the Thanksgiving activities that there just isn't room to really give what would be a newspaper account of our various games.

The January issue will be pretty well filled with the returns from the Thanksgiving Offering, we hope, so that makes this December issue the logical one to give a full resume of our athletic doings during the fall months.

Barium has three football teams: the varsity, the 100-pound team, and an intermediate team which sometimes plays under 115-pound weight limit and sometimes the 125. We will give you a review of the varsity games, then the 125 (this intermediate team) and finally the 100-pound. Here goes:

The season opened on September 17, at Barium with Mooresville the opposition. Barium had a distinct advantage in this game, since they had one week more practice and more veterans on their team. However, Mooresville put up a good fight, and although the final score was 34-0 in favor of Barium, the game was interesting right up to the finish.

The following week, Barium journeyed to Charlotte for one of the big games on her schedule. Central High, the state class-A champions of 1936 was met, and as it turned out, Charlotte was the state Champions for 1937. This was a most interesting game, and in some respects was a heart-breaker for Barium. Charlotte won 7-0. It was the only defeat of the 1937 season for Barium. Barium made 12 first downs to Charlotte's 4, but Charlotte was the team that put the ball over the final important stripe for a clean-cut victory.

On October 1, at Barium Springs, another Class-A team was entertained. It was Salisbury this time—a big, fine looking team that played a most interesting game. The final score was: Barium 19, Salisbury 0.

The Salisbury sports writer who covered this game made the most vivid description we have read anywhere. He said that the Salisbury team had the biggest boys and they played good ball, but there were just too many of those red-coated orphans; that every time a Salisbury boy would get his hands on the ball, those red-shirted orphans would come piling in through the window, down the chimney, up from the cellar and everywhere and he didn't have a chance to get started.

One week after this game, Barium journeyed to Winston-Salem to play the Children's Home, and incidentally helped them dedicate their new football field. It was Home-Coming Day for the Methodists, too, as if all these other things were not enough handicap for Barium. The game that day was the best high school game played in North Carolina this season. It was a scoreless tie, but don't think for a minute that either team was playing safe and trying to make it a tie. They were throwing passes all over the lot and trying the most intricate double and triple reverses you ever saw in a desperate attempt to score. When that game was over, not only the players, but the officials and the spectators were limp.

Back at Barium, on October 15, Barium met Lexington — a team that is usually just a bit stronger than Barium. This year, Barium defeated Lexington 26-0. They were still traveling in high gear, the same way they played the Children's Home, and it was just too much for the Lexington team, composed nearly of all new players and a very few veterans.

On October 22, Barium played a night game at Concord. It was a stormy night, with a high gale blowing. Concord was the opposition. Everybody enjoyed that game except the man responsible for the electric light bulbs that lighted the field. About $25.00 worth of them blew out in the fourth quarter, and the game was called while still about six minutes were due to be played. Barium defeated Concord 14-0 in a grand, exciting game.

The following week, Kannapolis was the opposition. This game was played on Concord's field, and Barium had the toughest time of the whole year in winning that game. Barium scored early in the game, and in the fourth quarter, Kannapolis tied up the score. Then Barium really went to town. They did more ball playing in that last quarter than in all the rest of the game. McCrimmon was a special sort of poison for Kannapolis' team that day. The final score was 13-6.

And then back home for the big game between Statesville and Barium. Barium is favored in these games, and this year Statesville was still struggling in her football slump. The final score was, Barium 59; Statesville 0. BUT, this score doesn't begin to tell the story. As a matter of fact, Statesville made twice

GOOD NEWS

McKinnon Sunday School in Concord Presbytery has re-instated the plan of sending the Orphanage the third Sunday Offerings of each month. For a while McKinnon had to discontinue this support. However, a quarterly check was recently received here.

Add Mulberry Sunday School in Mecklenburg Presbytery to that ever-increasing number of Sunday Schools giving the Orphanage an Offering each of the 12 months of the year. Mulberry has adopted the plan and has already sent in the fourth Sunday responses of October and November.

Covenant Auxiliary, in Fayetteville Presvbytery, made another quilt for the Orphanage this year and sold it for $11.00. That sum was recently welcomed here as a special contribution. This is the second time that the Covenant (F) Auxiliary has done this.

REV. OSCAR MANN MADE STIRRING ADDRESS HERE ON HOME-COMING DAY

He Cited Two Reasons for an Annual Assembly of The Barium Alumni

HOW TO HELP

He told Alumni to Let It Be Known That They Are Graduates

Rev. J. Oscar Mann, director of religious education in the Synod of North Carolina and 1902 graduate of the Presbyterian Orphans' Home, made a very striking, timely and stirring address to the alumni who assembled in the auditorium of the grammar school building for an afternoon meeting on Home-Coming day here November 26. It was the first time but it won't be the last, that a prepared program and a selected speaker was arranged for the returning alumni who came back to their Home from several states.

The speaker began his address by citing a two-fold purpose of such assemblies. The first was the opportunity of getting in touch with "our old home," catching again the visions and dreams of our boyhood and girlhood days, renewing friendships and sharing our experiences with others." The second purpose of an alumni gathering, said Mr. Mann, is that "we shall, in our united and co-operative way, work to make the institution stronger so that in the future others might come to Barium Springs."

It was upon this second point that Mr. Mann elaborated at length and he advanced two salient ways in which the alumni can be of invaluable assistance to the Home. The first metioned was "let it be distinctly known that we have a happy pride in being reared in the Barium Home" and the second one, "live up to, as best as we can, the teachings, traditions and character instilled in us while we were here."

The speaker, who travels the length and breadth of this Synod in his present capacity as reli-

BULLETIN

On December 16th, the 1937 Thanksgiving Offering that had been sent to the Orphanage at Barium Springs had reached the sum of $26,925.89. On the same date in 1936, the amount that had arrived here was $35,379.04, which was $8,453.15 more than on the same date in the current year. To date, 308 reports have been received, with 153 churches showing increases, 155 giving less than in 1936, and with 27 churches giving the best Offerings in 13 years.

AN ACCOUNT OF HOME-COMING DAY

Barium has had another Home-Coming Day. It was the twenty-sixth of November, the day after Thanksgiving. Old-timers commenced to filter in on the 24th, the day before Thanksgiving. By the night of Thanksgiving, there was a right respectable number here, and exploring parties and groups of old friends talking over old times were dotted over the campus. On Friday morning, in spite of the threatening weather, they commenced to shower in, and by 11 o'clock, the time of the annual pep meeting, there were enough to fill up one end of the school auditorium.

Maybe we ought to say a word or two about this pep meeting. You know Barium always has one of their toughest opponents to meet in football on Home-Coming Day, and the pep meeting is usually largely in the hands of the returning alumni. The things they have to say and the enthusiasm they display gets into the home crowd and the home team so that they are simply unbeatable that day. William Hudson, one of the old captains, Charlie Sears, Roy Wilson, and Mrs. Coble (one time Helen Brown), the sister of the famous Reid Brown, all made talks.

Immediately after this pep meeting, there was the big family reunion in the big dining room. Something more than sixty ate dinner, which made the family party well over 400.

Immediately after dinner, the regular meeting of the Alumni Association was held. It was presided over by the President, R. E. Jackins. There were a few brief words of welcome by the Superintendent, responded to most gracefully by Leonard Fort, a senior at Davidson. Then followed the introduction by Rev. J. O. Mann by Roland Ferguson of Charlotte. Dr. Mann protested over his selection as the man to introduce him, because he said that Roland knew entirely too much about him for him to feel comfortable, but this introduction was enjoyable and not too hard on Dr. Mann. And then Dr. Mann's speech. This speech is recorded in full elsewhere in this paper and was one of the highlights of the entire meeting. Following his speech, the secretary of the Association, Miss Hilda Bernardo, of Charlotte, presented the the Thanksgiving Offering, so far contributed by the Alumni. This has amounted to the fine sum of $178.25 and was given with such enthusiasm that we can't help but feel it will do more than double duty.

At the regular business session following this, William Hudson of Dunn, was elected President; Wilson Lowrance of Davidson, Vice-President; Mrs. Rachel Moore Kyles, Statesville, Secretary.

Several other matters were discussed. One was the advisability of holding an extra Home-Coming Day during the summer time. No action was taken on this matter, but there will very likely be an invitation extended during the summer when fruit and melons are at the peak, for an all-day Home-Coming, but this will not replace the formal gathering in the fall of the year that has grown to such sizeable proportions.

Quite a number of alumni came in late and were too late to register—possibly more than twice the number of alumni that did register. There appears below in this paper the names and addresses of those who came in time to register and give their addresses.

The football game designed for the entertainment and inspiration of the visiting alumni was of very high order, described elsewhere.

We wish all the people who have a hand in supporting this great institution could have been present on Home-Coming Day. They would have been proud to claim kin with that fine group of young men and women who call Barium "Home". They would have rejoiced with them in the renewing of old acquaintances and beloved memories, and they would be proud to recognize kinship with them in their various activities in the state and nation.

At these gatherings there are quite a number of in-laws (husbands and wives) and a fair sprinkling of children. This was the first time that any grand-children appeared. George Hipp, who generally claims the distinction of being the oldest alumnus present, brought his daughter and her child. This youngster heard the Superintendent say something about him being his great-grandson, and that gave him a rather keen interest in the Superintendent. Later on in the day, during the football game, he wandered down to the sidelines to see what was going on there. He was introduced to the crowd as the only authentic and admitted great-grandson of the Orphanage, and he turned and very nonchalantly waved his hand to the assembled crowd. Pretty smart for a little two-year old!

Many of the alumni failed to register, but those that did are as follows:

From Charlotte:

Misses Hilda and Angelina and Sam Bernardo, 304 N. Poplar St.; Harley F. Carriker, 415 Pecan Avenue; Robert Wilkes; Mrs. Edna Jackins Huntley, 1101 Elizabeth Ave.; Clinton Caudill, Monroe Road; Lucille Burney, Kings Business College; George H. Hipp, 513 West 7th; Mrs. Virginia Hipp Haas, 513 West 7th St.; Louise, Margaret and Marshall Wilson, 416 East Blvd.; Esther Archer, 126 West 7th St.; Ruby Pickler, 2215 Pembroke Ave.; Mrs. W. B. Wallace, 817 West 2nd; Mrs. Jack (Martha Beattie) Law, 1505 Kenilworth Ave.; Bill Beattie, 312 N. Brevard St.; Ray Shaffer; Johnson Shaffer, and J. B. Lee.

SYNOD	$2,933.85	$7,495.31	12.6c	37 c

The November table of receipts is being presented this month with very little comment. The notable thing about the usual report is that the regular receipts for November were $353.19 more than in November, 1936, so it can today be announced that the month-to-month income from Synod was running considerably behind, but the friends of the Home have staged a [illegible] October and November that overcame the deficit and enables an annuouncement to be made

This table also shows the preliminary Thanksgiving Offerings from Synod. Before November was over $7,495.31 had been received from the churches as Thanksgiving Offering. However, the bulk of the special responses is coming in during the month of December and will be tabulated in the Jauary issue. Only the contributions that reached Barium Springs by November 30th are recorded in this copy of The Messenger.

Watch for the January table of eceipts and more detailed comment.

as many first downs on Barium as Charlotte did. They held Barium better in scrimmage than most of the teams Barium has been up against. It was in returning of punts and the interception of passes that Barium excelled and ran up this score.

The week following Barium journeyed to Hickory to play a team that is usually one of the strongest on Barium's schedule. The game was played in the rain. The field was slippery, and the final score was Barium 13; Hickory 0. Hickory blames the weakness on her team on a rather peculiar circumstance. They say that this generation of boys in high school are too smart; that they finish high school before they are half-grown. That makes us wonder, because Hickory continues to have a team of girls in the basketball arena that for size and comeliness outranks almost any group of that kind! We are just wondering if the girls are getting the size and the beauty and the boys the brains! If that is the case, it won't continue that way long, and we may except Hickory back giving everybody plenty of excitement and competition.

On November 19, in the last conference game on Barium's schedule, Barium took on Albemarle at Albemarle. And there Barium found one of the toughest teams on her schedule. The final score was 25-0, and neither does this score tell the tale. Albemarle had two tackles that could just step on to anybody's college team, and look perfectly at home. They wrecked many of Barium's best plays, but a mixture of forward passes and David Spencer was too much with the aforementioned score resulting.

On November 26, Home-Coming Day, Greensboro journeyed to Barium to furnish the opposition for that grand and glorious occasion. Greensboro has no doubt the strongest high school team in the State. It is much stronger than it was when she played Charlotte; and you remember Greensboro almost took Charlotte. The combination of Home-Coming Day and six boys playing their last game for Barium was too much for Greensboro, however, and the final score was 13-7 in favor of Barium. And thus ended a grand season, with nine victories, one tie and one defeat for a hard schedule.

The intermediate teams: The 125-pound boys only played five games but they still had a pretty busy season. The 125-pound team furnishes the opposition for the varsity. And they have to turn around and furnish some opposition for the 100-pounders. The 100-pound team this year was so good that it made the 125-pound team extend itself to hold this bustifferous crowd of youngsters down. The season opened on October 16 at Kannapolis. Barium won this game 6-0 in a hard-fought interesting game.

On the 19th of October, at Statesville, Barium defeated Statesville 21-0. The Statesville midget teams are always good, and this year's teams were no exception.

On November 4, they again played Statesville at Barium. The score was Barium 47, Statesville 0. A good many of the boys on the Statesville team had lost interest and this was not such a good contest.

On November 13 at Oxford, this team suffered its first defeat in about six years, losing to Oxford 6-0. Oxford's 125-pound team is the best aggregation our team has been up against in a good many years. It was played on Oxford's ground which was a little sloping and the field was very wet and slippery.

On November 20, at Barium, this team played its last game and beat Kannapolis 27-6.

This year the 125-pound team was rather short on material. There were so many boys just under the 105-pound limit of the 100-pound who might ordinarily have been on the 125-pound team. This means that next year our strength will be in the 125-pound class.

And now for the 100-pounders: This crowd of youngsters played 12 games. They won 11 victories and there was one tie game; scored a total of 413 points against 19 by their opponents, and played the strongest 100-pound teams in the state—teams that always give their opponents a battle. Here is the whole story: On October 2, Barium entertained the Junior Order Orphanage at Barium. The final score was: Barium 39; Junior Order 7. The following week at Winston-Salem, Barium defeated the Children's Home, 33-0. On October 16, Barium defeated Kannapolis at Kannapolis, 13-0 in one of the hardest games they played all year. On the 19th, at Statesville Barium defeated Statesville 20-0, and on the 23rd, at Lexington, defeated the Junior Order 27-0 all the scoring being done in the last half of the game at Lexington. On the 30th, Barium defeated Oxford 26-0 at Barium; and on the fourth, defeated Statesville at Barium 41-0. On November 6, at Barium the Children's Home was defeated 82-0. In this game there were a number of perfect plays. You know football fans are always looking for those plays in which every one of the eleven men carry out their assignments perfectly. Whenever this is done, a touchdown is bound to result. The Children's Home was simply outclassed in that one contest.

On the 13th at Oxford Barium suffered its first tie game. It was the only game in the entire season that they did not win. The Oxford youngsters were playing before a home crowd and played inspired ball.

The following Thursday, November 18, at Greensboro, four Orphanage teams met and played double-headers. The two teams that Barium played that day were the Catholic Orphanage of Raleigh which they defeated 25-6; and the Raleigh Methodists which they defeated 61-0. In this latter game Barium's lightweights of the 100-pounders, the 85-pounders played most of the game.

Back at Barium on the morning of the 20th, this marvelous team played its last game, defeating Kannapolis 46-6.

This was the first year that this team had been outfitted in its own distinctive uniform. They were blue and white, and they just seemed to suit this team. They played with such rythm and timed their plays so well that a visitor remarked on seeing them play: That ought to be set to music. Maybe he was thinking about the "Rhapsody in Blue." Certainly a lover of football who had the privilege of seeing this group play, would have the same sort of sensation that a music lover would have in hearing a magnificent orchestra render a great piece of music.

The 100-pound squad has its lightweight also—the 85-pounders. They don't get to play as many games. They often substitute in the 100-pound games, but they had three regular games this year. The first one they lost to the Children's Home squad of the same weight, 27-7. Mott Price was the star for Barium in this game, and a little one-handed boy playing center was the star on the Children's Home.

The next game on their schedule was also lost to Oxford, 6-0; and then the final game for this team turned out to be a victory. It was with the Children's Home at Barium, and Barium won 19-0.

Let's summarize:

The varsity won 9, tied 1 and lost 1.
The 125-pounders won 4 and lost 1.
The 100-pounders won 11 and tied 1.
The 85-pounders won 1 and lost 2.

COTTAGE NEWS

TRUCK FARM

Hello Folks!

Since winter has set in we are not doing much outside work. There is though a great deal of new ground to be cleared and lots of wood to be cut and sawed.

A number of our boys made the honor roll this past month in school. They were the McCall twins, (Jack and Tom), Joe Ben Gibbs, Ed Cole, and Esau Davis.

A great many of our boys now are practicing wrestling and basket ball. Donald Bolton, a former truck-farmer, has gone to the farm group to work.

This past year we had an abundance of crops. Some of our crops won first prizes at Troutman and Statesville fairs.

Nowadays we are working in our shop where we shell corn, peas and beans for next year's crop.

Mr. Clark, (our boss) had his house fixed and painted this summer and we often work there, such as cutting fire wood and raking leaves.

Henry, a colored worker, has his hands full these days plowing, hauling coal and wood.

This is all there is to write about this month so we will save some news for next month.

In behalf of Mr. Clark and our group we wish you all a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year.

—The Truck-Farmers.

BABY COTTAGE

Hello Friends,

It seems only yesterday you heard from us last.

Nov. 11: Armistice Day, but we didn't have any celebration here.

Nov. 12: Three ladies from Greensboro came to visit us and gave us some money to have a party with and we are looking forward to it.

Nov. 13: We had a bunch of Mitchell College girls to visit us this afternoon. A friend of Miss McKethan's came to visit her today and we had them, Misses Green, Thompson, and Bell with us for supper.

Nov. 14: Mr. Hanna certainly did preach us a good sermon today. His text was taken from the 23rd Psalm. Mr. and Mrs. Ray from Durham came over to see us after church and we enjoyed them. Bobby Marrow's people came to visit him, the Barnes children had a visit from their aunt and uncle, Jackie William's mother and friends came to visit her. We were glad to have Maude and her friends to pay us a visit. We had the Rally for District No. 2 to meet with us this afternoon from 2:30 to 8:30. Some of them came to see us and we were glad to have them. John Smith went with a bunch of other children and teachers to Mitchell College to put on a program and reported a grand time.

Nov. 15: Two of our boys, J. D. and Herbert, went with a crowd to Salisbury to put on a program. We had several visitors from Gastonia, among them were Mrs. Flow and her daughter. Miss Flow brought us some scrap books and a large doll.

Nov. 16, Today we received a lovely quilt, some toys and napkins from Mrs. Spence and her church. Many thanks.

Nov. 17: Mama O'Kelly, Bobby Allen, Paul Barnes, Sylvia Buie and Gertie Smith were our Nov. birthday roll and went to the Birthday dinner, sure was good. We were glad to have a party of ladies from the Church of the Covenant of Greensboro today. Come again.

Nov. 18: Mr. Lowrance brought the colt and horse to see us this morning. They certainly were fine and we enjoyed seeing them.

Nov. 19: Helen Price, one of our girls, went to Albemarle this afternoon to see our boys play their last game of football away from home. This has been a rather cold and dreary day. We hope next Friday will be pretty as that is Home-Coming Day.

Nov. 20: We were glad to have Mrs. Leath from Reidsville and some of her friends to visit us. They brought us all some candy. They brought Ray and Melva Powell some bed room shoes and they sure were delighted over them. They also brought us a pretty red doll and we sure are enjoying playing with it.

Nov. 21: Today was very cold but all the same Mama Girt and our girls wrapped us up good and we went to Sunday School and Church as usual. Mr. Hanna preached a splendid sermon. After church we were glad to have two of Mrs. McNatt's daughters and her friends pay us a visit.

Nov. 22: We want to thank the friends that sent us chewing gum today.

Nov. 23: One of our usual days at Barium but busy looking forward to Thanksgiving and Home-Coming.

Nov. 24: Mrs. White, Mrs. Mills and Mrs. Massey from Mooresville, came and brought us some oranges from the Junior Department of Mooresville First Church. Mrs. Holton from Statesville came and brought us some magazines and we want to thank them. Some of our friends from Mt. Gilead sent us some cookies and they sure are grand. We sure do appreciate them. Ethel Grotherton and Melva Powell got their clothing boxes and they are real pretty. Some more of our friends sent us some extra dresses and we sure do thank you and know we shall enjoy wearing them.

Nov. 25: Today is Thanksgiving Day and we sure do have lots to be thankful for. We certainly had a good Thanksgiving dinner today. The young people had charge of the Thanksgiving Service this morning and it certainly was sweet. A man entertained us this afteroon with an Educated Mule Show and we enjoyed it.

Nov. 26: Home-Coming and a lot of our boys and girls came back. A good many of them together with several visitors came over to see us. Little Joe Haas, grandson of Mr. Hipp, an old Barium boy, came to see us with his mother and Joe brought us some creams. Mr. Roland Ferguson, also an old Barium boy, brought us some stick candy and we certainly do thank them.

Nov. 27: We were glad to have some old children of the Orphanage to visit us. Mrs. Coble gave Mama Girt some money for our Sunday School Class. We certainly did appreciate it.

Nov. 28: Miss Copeland spent the week-end with us, we enjoyed having her. Bobby Allen's aunt came and some friends. They remembered him by bringing some fruit and a birthday cake.

Nov. 29: The "Evening" Circle of Spencer Presbyterian Church sent us a beautiful spread and we certainly do thank them for it.

Nov. 30: Today Mrs. Tripp from Charlotte, who is 82 years old, sent us 3 quilts. We appreciate them and thanks a lot.

Will hear from us next month.

—The Babies.

CARPENTER BOYS

Hello Folks,

We are writing for our first time because our group has just been organized. Our job is to do the carpenter work on the campus. We, for the last few weeks, have been putting in window panes and fixing the babies some boxes to sit on.

There are three of us on our group. Bill Martin, Bobbie and Tommie Adams with Mr. J. W. Ervin of Troutman our "boss". Tommie hasn't been on our group but just a few days.

A couple of weeks ago Mr. Ervin went down to the eastern part of the state with Mr. Kyles, the supervisor of the printing department, to hunt deer. Mr. Ervin got one that weighed about one hundred and fitty pounds.

Not long ago we enlarged our shop so we could have more room to do our work in.

We ended up our football season a few weeks ago by playing Greensboro, on our Home-Coming game. We won, 13 to 7. Lots of our old boys and girls came back to see us.

The annual football banquet was held the tenth of December and all the boys who are out for football went to it, and the different teams received their letters. This season's accomplishments have been very good.

So long.

—The Nail Punchers.

Income Distribution

Synod has regularly contributed $23,176.77 to the Orphanage in the first eight months of this year, $7,540.63 of that coming from church budgets, $10,935.97 from Sunday School Offerings, and $4,700.17 from Auxiliaries. The percentage distribution is 32.5% from Church budgets, 47.2% from Sunday Schools and 20.3% from Auxiliaries. All of the regular receipts, according to Presbyteries and the channels in each are as follows:

No. Organizations

During November, 42 organizations filed their initial regular reports for the current year with the Orphanage. Eight church budgets, 13 Sunday Schools and 21 Auxiliaries sent their first regular contributions. In the first eight months the Orphanage has therefore received a report from 194 church budgets, 252 Sunday Schools and 168 Auxiliaries. Watch the January issue of The Messenger for many more, for regular gifts are being sent along with the Thanksgiving Offerings.

The tabulation on each Presbytery is as follows:

Presbytery	Ch.	S. S.	Aux.
Albemarle	10	20	19
Concord	38	35	19
Fayetteville	13	54	22
Granville	15	11	15

REV. J. OSCAR MANN

gious education director, said that he had been amazed and thrilled to learn of the great love of many thousands of Presbyterian friends. Offsetting this delightful revelation was his contact with a few (not very many, he added) of the graduates of the Orphanage who try to "soft-pedal the fact that they were once at Barium, who are not anxious for people to know that they were in the Home.'"

At this juncture, Mr. Mann became vehement and said that such an attitude was "unbecoming, ungrateful and contemptible. Every last one of the boys and girls who have ever been at the Orphanage ought to be glad of the Providence of God that he was here and proud of that fact. You'll increase your own self-respect and increase the respect of others, he contended, if you'll let the world know that you are an alumnus of the Presbyterian Orphans' Home."

In touching upon his second point, the visiting minister felt that "when we go out, we can, in our conduct, standards and ideals, carry the institution to the eyes of the world." A person goes out, he continued, "to carry not only his own personal honor, but the honor of the institution." The latter, he said, would be judged and appraised by that honor.

Mr. Mann felt that the alumni could honor the Home by finding "our place out there where we can find ourselves. There is a place for each of us. * * * There is a particular call to Barium boys and girls, for in the world there stands a constant challenge to people of intelligence, courage and character.

"It's no accident that you ever came to Barium" said Mr. Mann toward the close of his address. Let no one leave Barium thinking that they are handicapped. It's a privilege to be here. It is fine, effective and inspiring to complete your elementary education at the Orphanage. God placed us here because He had a place and a challenge for us."

S. S. MEALS

In last month's issue of The Messenger, it was reported that the Sunday Schools' giving was $313.11 behind what it was on October 31, 1936. However, the Sunday School responses in November were exceptionally good, and today it can be stated that most of that difference was made up in November, for the report shows that the Sunday Schools are only $37.12 behind their giving on November 30, 1936.

The Sunday Schools will have to go a long way in December to measure up to the giving of a year ago, for they gave $1,632.80 in December, 1936. It remains to be seen what will happen this month. Will the Sunday Schools give as much in December, 1937, and also overcome that small deficiency in the first eight months?

During November, Marion and Statesville First in Concord Presbytery and Olivia in Fayetteville Presbytery joined the $100.00 Sunday School club, making 26 in that group today. Those 26 and the amounts so far contributed are as follows:

Sunday School	Amount
Concord First	$374.18
Winston-Salem 1st	325.36
